					across the three Theatre suites in SBU we will have 29 ODP students plus additional Nursing students numbers and supporting New registrants to be trained across 33 theatres. Over saturation of clinical areas with students leading to high footfall and poor learning outcomes due to limited exposure. Learning models are being looked at to help this and to be able to increase cohort numbers. Also that the localisation of ODP training in Swansea university improves retention require for the future requirement of a greatly increased theatre workforce.
