I refer to your Freedom of Information Act Request acknowledged by ourselves on 4th March 2021. Your request sought information relating to A&E attendances for abdominal pain.

I am looking for statistics for the number of patients that present to A&E with sudden onset abdominal pain in Wales, more specifically, Morrison hospital if possible.

You clarified on 4th March 2021 that you would like the most recent statistics within the last 5 years. You are looking for adult statistics for patients who presented only to A&E. If admittance information for these patients is available you requested this also be provided.

We have provided information for the last full five calendar years available. Please note that this information relates to our Emergency Department at Morrison Hospital.

2017	1274
2018	1160
