

Care Support

Do you receive care support?

No	Yes
----	-----

Please select all that are applicable

- Family
- Friends
- Carer
- Paid Carer
- Community Health
- Social Care Agency
- 3rd Sector
- Care Home
- Residential Home
- Neighbour
- Other (please specify)

Do you have carer responsibilities?

No	Yes
----	-----

Other (please specify)

Do you have carer responsibilities?

No

Yes

Action

If carer identified, consider a carer's assessment

Patient was 18 or above at the start of the current assessment

Does the patient wish to be referred for a carer's assessment?

No

Yes

Action

Does your admission / condition directly affect care of children / relatives / pets / assistance animals / others?

No

Yes

Do you have any concerns regarding continuity of care for dependents?

No

Yes

Does your admission / condition directly affect care of children / relatives / pets / assistance animals / others?

No

Yes

500 remaining

Action

Do you have any concerns regarding continuity of care for dependents?

No

Yes

500 remaining

Action

Do you manage your household without any help?

No

Yes

Do you live alone?

No

Yes

Who do you live with?

496 remaining

teat

Do you manage your household without any help?

No Yes

Do you live alone?

No Yes

Who do you live with?

496 remaining

test

What type of accommodation is it?

496 remaining

test

When you are discharged are you planning to return to your current address?

No Yes

Save & Next

Complete & Next

Once the questions in WNCR are answered, nursing practices differ depending on patient need. For example: a straightforward admission and subsequent discharge where minimal change has occurred this might be a conversation with the non-paid carer, however more complex situations often require referral to other professionals.

These questions are usually completed on admission to gain a baseline and start any future planning as earlier as possible, they can be updated throughout the patient admission. The discharge checklist is NOT a discharge planning tool.