

Translation Services/Gwasanaeth Cyfiethu

Llinell Gyswilt (Linkline)

The Link Line is run by the Welsh Language Board and provides the following services free of charge:

- Translates up to 30 words
- Edits up to 75 words
- Translates menus of every kind
- Provides information on all aspects of Wales and the Welsh language
- Advises on place names in Wales
- Enquiries about education in Welsh

To access their services, visit their website at:

<http://www.llinellgyswilt.com/eng/croeso.html>.

RNIB Cymru

RNIB Cymru's bilingual transcription service enables organisations to provide accessible information for all staff and service users. RNIB Cymru works with both public and private sector organisations - providing bespoke transcription services, whether for a frequent requirement, or a one-off document.

Bilingual transcription services available:

- Braille
- Large print
- Audio
- Electronic

What can be transcribed?

RNIB Cymru offers transcription of a wide variety of documents including:

- Information brochures, leaflets and marketing materials
- Annual reports
- Restaurant menus
- Bills
- Recruitment information packs

These are just some examples of documents that can be transcribed.

For more information on RNIB Cymru's transcription service, please email the ALIC team at alicenquiries@rnib.org.uk, telephone 02920 45 0440 or visit their website at:

http://www.rnib.org.uk/xpedio/groups/public/documents/PublicWebsite/public_waltrans.hcsp.

Cymdeithas Cyfieithwyr Cymru (Association of Welsh Translators)

Cymdeithas Cyfieithwyr Cymru offer a directory of Welsh translators as well as advice and guidance on commissioning work. As well as listing translators by locality, their directory can also be browsed by the fields in which they specialise, meaning you can quickly find someone suitable for the work you require.

For further information, visit:

<http://www.cyfieithwycymru.org.uk/english/cyfeirlyfr/default.asp>.